Youth and mobility

Mobility of youth workers

WHERE

Throughout Europe and in neighbouring countries (e.g., Georgia, Armenia ...)

DURATION

Throughout the year

TOPIC

Socio-professional inclusion of young people, fight against exclusion, racism and xenophobia, art and culture, environment, protection of cultural heritage, solidarity, economy, sport...

OBJECTIVES

- Share the experiences and expertise of youth policy stakeholders across Europe and beyond.
- Promote the professional development of youth policy workers and increase their skills.
- Exchange best practices related to youth in order to enable youth stakeholders from different countries to adapt them to a local and public context.
- Networking between key youth workers from different countries.

TARGET GROUPS

+ 18 years. Youth facilitators, social workers, elected officials and technicians from popular educational associations and movements, as well as local and regional authorities and all civil society actors dealing with European issues related to youth.

ACTIVITIES

Different types of mobility are possible for youth actors :

- Seminars (approximately 9 days): exchange of experiences, best practices and reflection on themes related to youth work/policy/animation ;
- Training (approximately 9 days): educational learning programme on specific topics, aimed at improving the skills, knowledge and well-being of the participants, and strengthening the quality of the practice of animation or projects ;
- Contact seminars (approximately 7 days): meetings organised to enable participants to find partners for transnational cooperation and/or the elaboration of a joint project ;
- Study visits (about 5 days): to better understand the realities of youth work in a country on a specific topic and via visits of local organizations.
