Solidarity Beyond Borders

WHERE

Rustavi, Georgia

DURATION

September - October
2019

TOPIC

Youth, Volunteering, educational mobility, European Solidarity Corps

OBJECTIVES

- To develop the autonomy and openness of young volunteers from Martinique and Georgia, and to enable them to become aware of the cultural diversity in the world.
- Encouraging the commitment and European citizenship of young Martinicians.
- Develop young people's empathy and enable them to realise the added value of commitment to a cause of general interest.
- To give disadvantaged young people in Martinique and Georgia the needed cross disciplinary skills to enable their socio-professional integration.
- Enable the exchange of tools and methods between Europe's neighbouring organisations and the European ultra-peripheral regions (RUP) concerning the accompaniment, support and monitoring of young people with fewer opportunities.

TARGET GROUPS

Young people with fewer opportunities.

ACTIVITIES

This volunteer project has contributed to the organisation of an open-air stage that serves to carry out «youth performances» for Rustavi children and disadvantaged young people (e.g.: Organisation of thematic workshops, street entertainment, cultural events: dance performances, various indoor and outdoor activities; art with stencils ...).

FUNDED BY

Corps Européen de Solidarité, GIP/DSU Le Lamentin.

IMPACTS

- Development of cross disciplinary skills of 10 young Martinicians and 5 young Georgians.
- Educational and animation workshops for 300 young people, children and inhabitants of Rustavi.
- Development of citizenship, solidarity and youth engagement.
- 8 information and preparation meetings for young people in Martinique.

PARTNERS

D'Antilles & D'Ailleurs (coordinator), Georgian Youth For Europe (Georgia), City Le Lamentin, MILCEM, MILSUD, City of DUCOS.

RESOURCES
