Objectives:
- Facilitate the acquisition of digital and socio-emotional skills by young people through innovative training programs
- Strengthen the capacity of youth workers and youth organizations to respond to the educational needs of young people through quality services
- Increase the dialogue and awareness in the EU on mental health and the recognition of the absence of mental disorders.

Impacts:
- Youth are engaged in an educational journey
- Youth and youth workers are aware of social anxiety disorder, its consequences and how to manage it.
- Partner organizations have acquired new methodologies and tools to work on social-emotional learning with youth.
- EU organizations have new tools for educational learning with young people
